CLASSEN HIGH SCHOOL

NON PROFICIT DEFICIT

METEOR

Foreword

The METEOR represents a temporary project, replacing the ORBIT, to meet the requirements and wishes of the students during a year of financial difficulties. It is the sincere wish of the Staff that the magazine will merit the approval of the Class of '32 and the Classen student body and faculty. We believe that the METEOR, a new type of publication, will serve as well as the Orbit the primary purpose of a highschool annual, to recall to pleasant memory the friendships formed and the experiences encountered during the eventful years of a senior highschool course.

Superintendent of Schools

His Message

To Members of the Graduating Class
Classen High School:

In extending to you hearty congratulations on this happy occasion, allow me to present these quotations from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow:

"The heights by great men reached and kept
Were not attained by sudden flight;
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night."

"Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee—are all with thee!"

With every good wish for your continued happiness and success, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

C. K. Reiff,

Superintendent City Schools.

His Message

Seniors! What a thrill and sense of joy the word brings to every sophomore and junior, and how proud are the members of the Senior Class to have attained the name!

Classen Seniors of 1932 have just reason for being proud of their successes, both individually and as a class. Of the numerous and worthy attainments of the class, one of the most outstanding has been their loyal and devoted leadership. This leadership has ever looked and strived toward the accomplishment of greater successes for Dear Old Classen High.

The philosophy of Classen is typified by the spirit of service. What an ideal! Our fondest dream is that students at Classen may develop unselfishness, forbearance, grace, poise, courage, efficiency, ideals, vision, and thought of the people who need help in the solution of their problems that are common to all mankind. Then add to this the will and the power to serve.

The past is not dead. In reality it lives for those who have the will and power to make it live. The past is constantly being reborn in our best plans for the future. We trust that as individuals, and as the Senior Class of 1932, you will draw freely and wisely on the past in behalf of a more glorious future which you will help to build.

Classen has faith in you!

L. N. Morrisett.

Representing the center of government in Classen, the Executive Council is composed of the major officers of the Student Council, the three class presidents and a representative of the Classen Life. Miss Etha Townsend and Mr. Fred Lyon are the sponsors for this important council. The Executive Council aids in problems of Student government by acting as the nucleus of the Student Council. Co-operation is sought in every possible manner in the governmental matters of the school.

As a result of the team work between these two bodies we have the following movements, each one of which proved a great benefit to the students; the sponsoring of the Safety Drive, better order in assembly, and the new home room schedule.

Classen was represented at Topeka at the Student Council Conference through the efforts of the Executive Council, by Carol Boone, Student Council president, and Karl Rusch, president of the Senior Class.

Inter-City Council

The Inter-City Council, which was organized to promote good will and to discuss problems which confronted the three High Schools of Oklahoma City, is composed of five representatives and one sponsor from Classen, Central, and Capitol Hill. Meeting three times a year, once in each school, they seek to collaborate with the three student councils. The members from Classen this year were: Carol Boone, Bill Bullis, J. A. Mull, Aileen Simms, and Frank Hamilton, with Miss Etha Townsend as their sponsor. The one important project to be undertaken for the coming year is the preparation of a code of Sportsmanship for the incoming Sophomores.

CLASSES

Senior Officers

KARL RUSCH, president; EDITH WOOD, secretary; COREE THOMAS, treasurer; BILL BULLIS, vice-president.

The Senior Class of 1932 has many members of unusual worth and ability. It has had splendid leadership and cooperation throughout its career. Among its ambitious undertakings during the year was its class play, "The Beggar on Horseback", directed by Mrs. Hampton Tucker, Jr., with the leads played by Carol Boone and Loren Sage. As its beautiful farewell gift the class presented a cyclorama of blue to harmonize with the other auditorium furnishings. Aided by the sponsors and counselor, the officers planned the Senior Breakfast, a lovely affair given at the Skirvin Roof Garden exclusively for the graduating class.

The prospects for the future success of the individuals of '32 are bright. Their record has been an especially fine one. They go forth from high school with glad hearts, a sense of fellowship, and high hopes for the ensuing years.

Undergraduate Classes

The Junior Class of 1932 has the distinction of presenting Classen's first junior play, "The Charm School," starring Emily McAlister and Paul Beach. Also, Chester Goggin won first place in the state Interpretive Reading contest.

The fine work done by the class could not have been accomplished without the splendid leadership of Bill Bates, president; Frank Hamilton, vice-president; Chester Goggin, secretary, and Aileen Simms, treasurer together with the cheerful guidance of its sponsors, Miss Vera Campbell, Miss Lucile Tandy, Miss Marguerite Rossington, and Mr. Richard DeLaubenfels.

The Sophomore Class has more honors than is usual for a group so recently come to Classen. It boasted one-half of the thirty-six all-A students for the first semester. Two sophomores placed first and second in the Mid-State extemporaneous speech contest. In the annual oratorical contest three of the finalists were from their ranks.

The president of the class, Frederick Zahn, was recently elected school treasurer for the coming year. The vice-president is Neal Day, the secretary, Doris White, and the treasurer, Ned Fry.

In Memoriam

JOHN ALDEN MRAZ

February 23, 1932

There were no stars that night.
A tragic moon
Appeared;
The music of the night was hushed
In breathlessness.
And in that moment of foreboding silence,
A Bow was drawn across
The Violin of Life——
A boyish song,
Yet filled with master's touch
Caressed the air
And faded in the night.
There were no stars——
But a tragic moon to guide
A lad called home.

Awards

The ten Classen awards, established by Mr. Anton H. Classen and continued each year by his widow, are esteemed the highest and most coveted honors that Classen students can receive.

The ten seniors, five girls and five boys, must be members of the National Honor Society, and are judged for their leadership, service, character, and scholarship.

A boy and girl are then chosen from these to receive the Medals of Honor.

Each year, in addition to these, special awards are presented to certain seniors for remarkable work in various branches of highschool activities.

They are the following:

The Daughters of the American Revolution medal for history.

The Sons of the American Revolution medal for character and citizenship.

The George Berry award for service and activity.

The Literary award for creative writing.

The French award for excellence.

The Eta Sigma Phi medal for outstanding work in Latin.

The V. V. Harris medal for Oratory.

The Tom Stewart athletic award for sports.

The Little Theater silver cup for dramatic work.

The Commercial award for shorthand and bookkeeping.

The American Association of University Women award of scholarship.

The Classen Life award for useful citizenship.

The Music awards for orchestral and vocal talent.

Take Your Pick

Helen Barnes, about to take a two-foot plunge.

Doesn't Yvonne Welch look "chair bound" but sweet?

Margaret Ellen Randerson is one young lady who always puts her best feet forward!

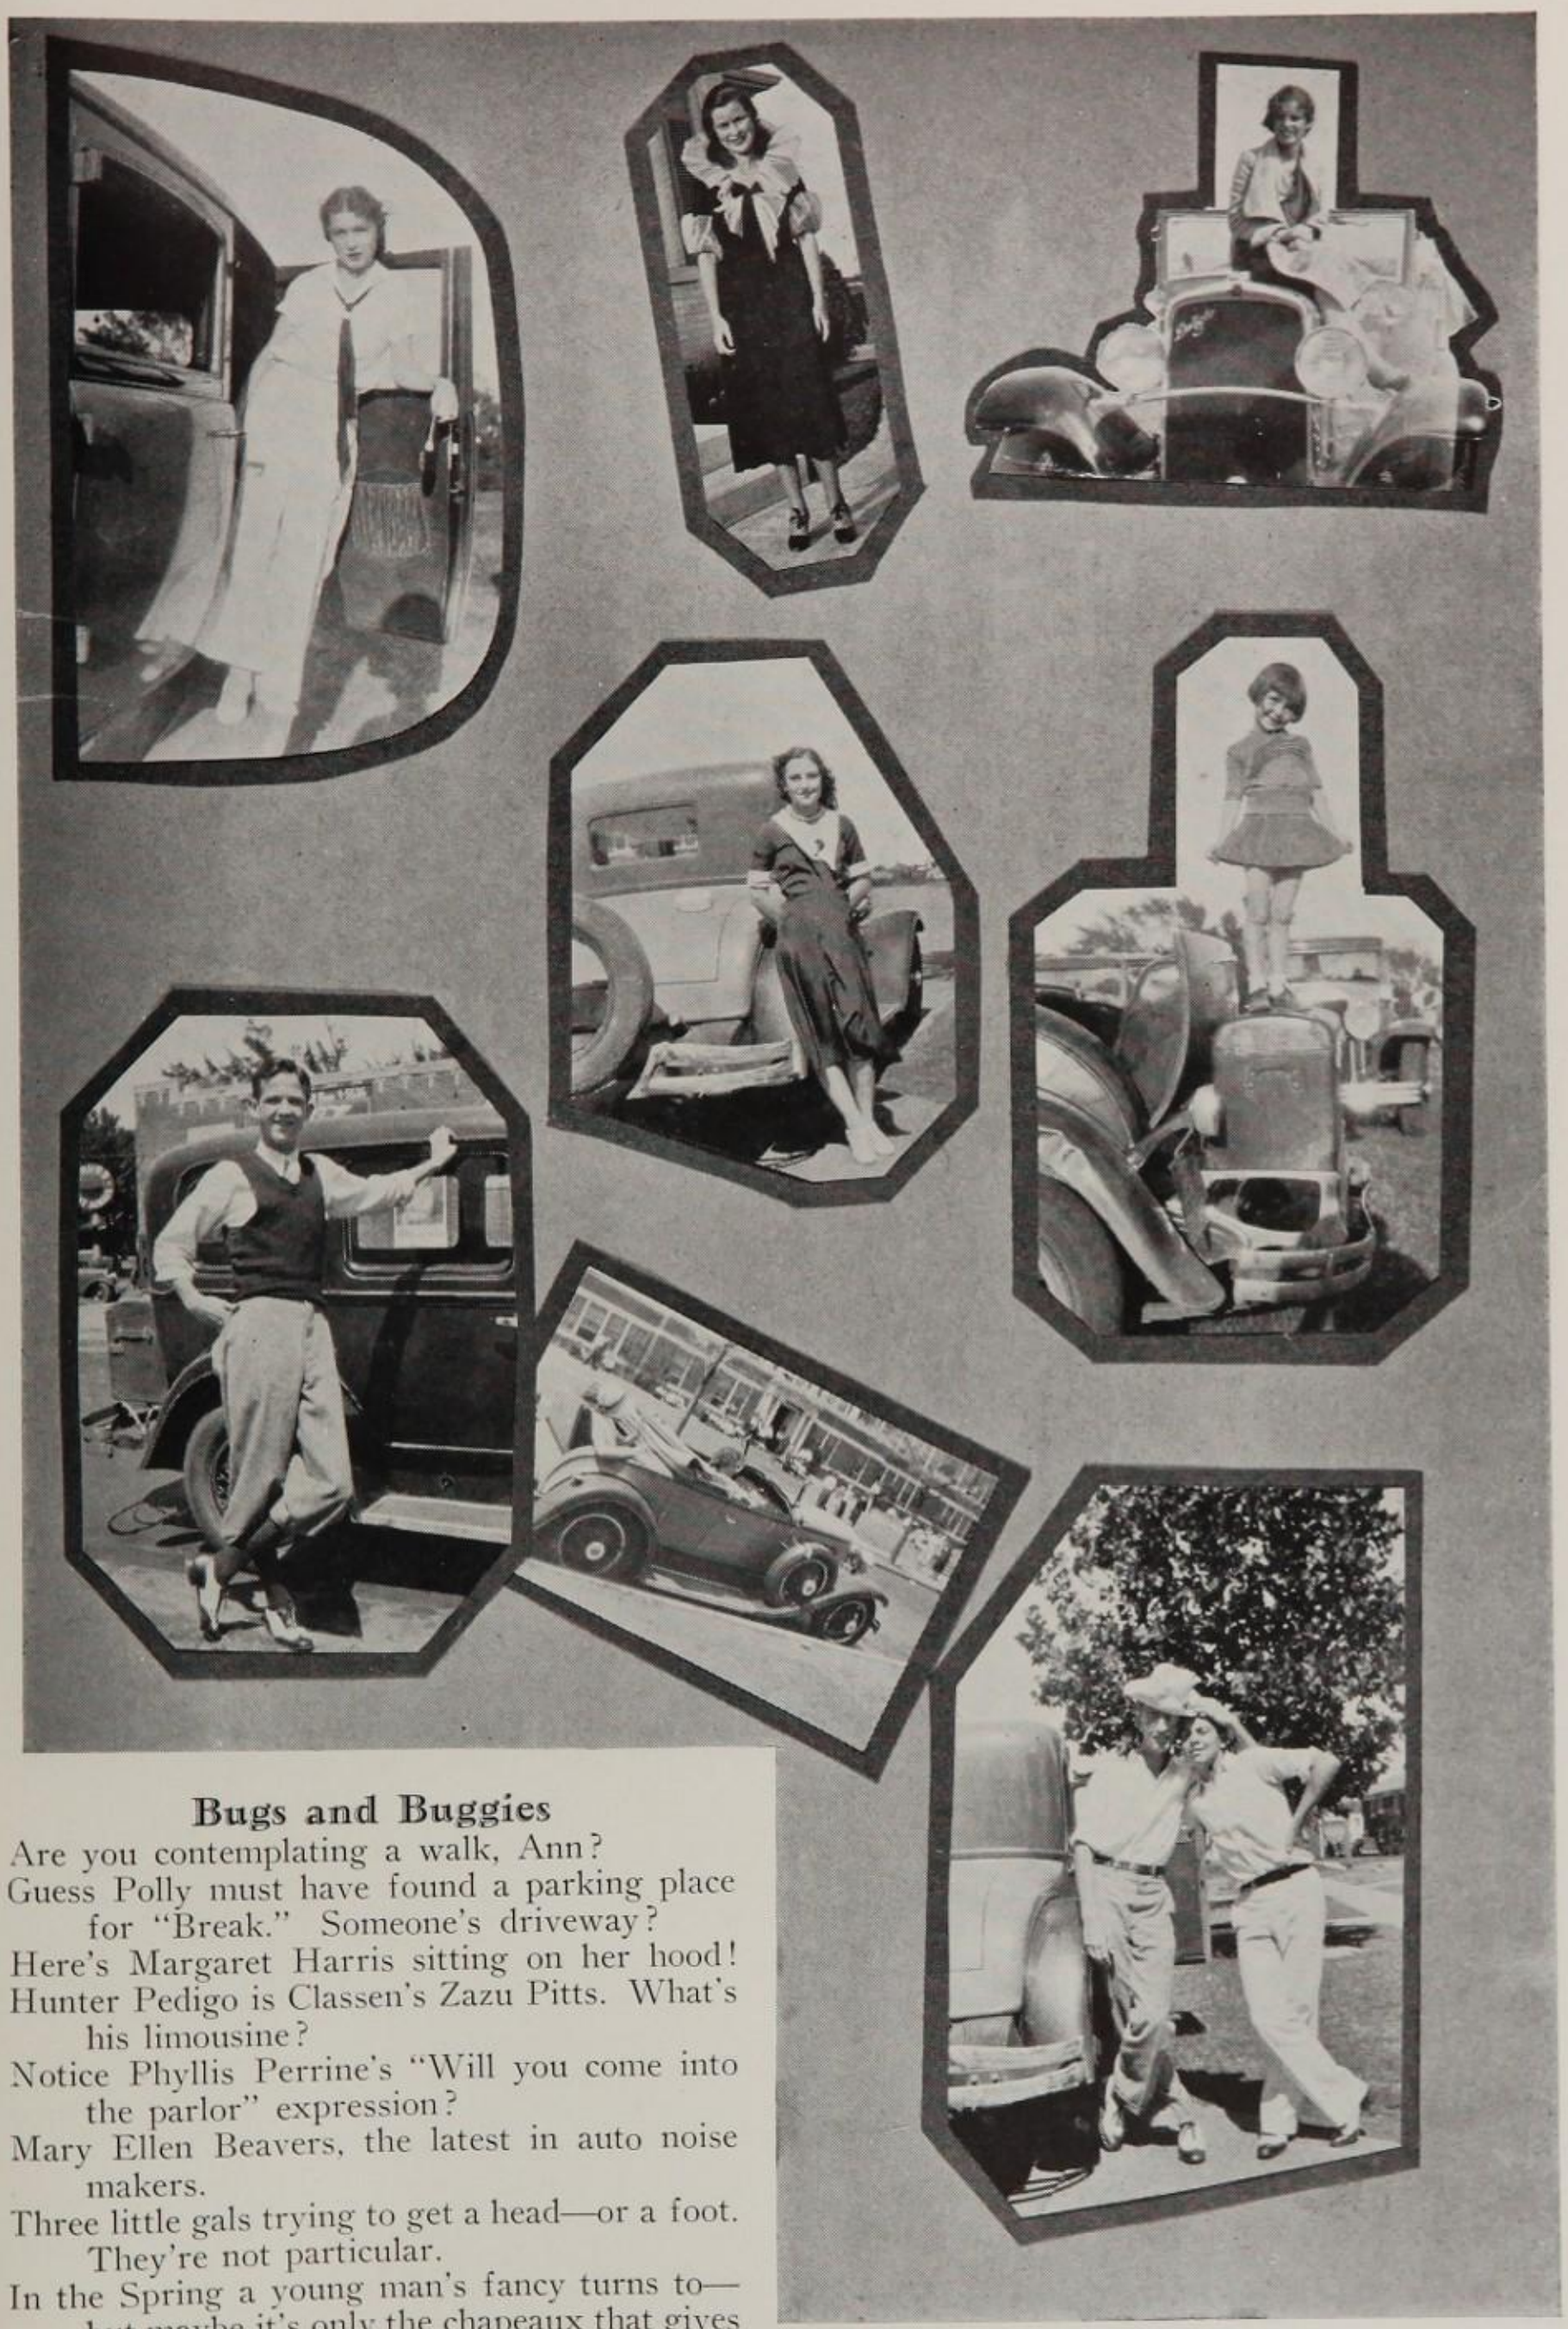
To an Earley young lawyer. Hope you never lose this suit, Bill!

What the well dressed merman will wear. Ask them!

We knew this page was too nice. Someone would turn a pair of cold shoulders!

Jane Clark and Sally West forgot their clothes. Shall we send them home?

Here's Marian Mish in an "off" moment!



Bugs and Buggies

Are you contemplating a walk, Ann?

Guess Polly must have found a parking place for "Break." Someone's driveway?

Here's Margaret Harris sitting on her hood!

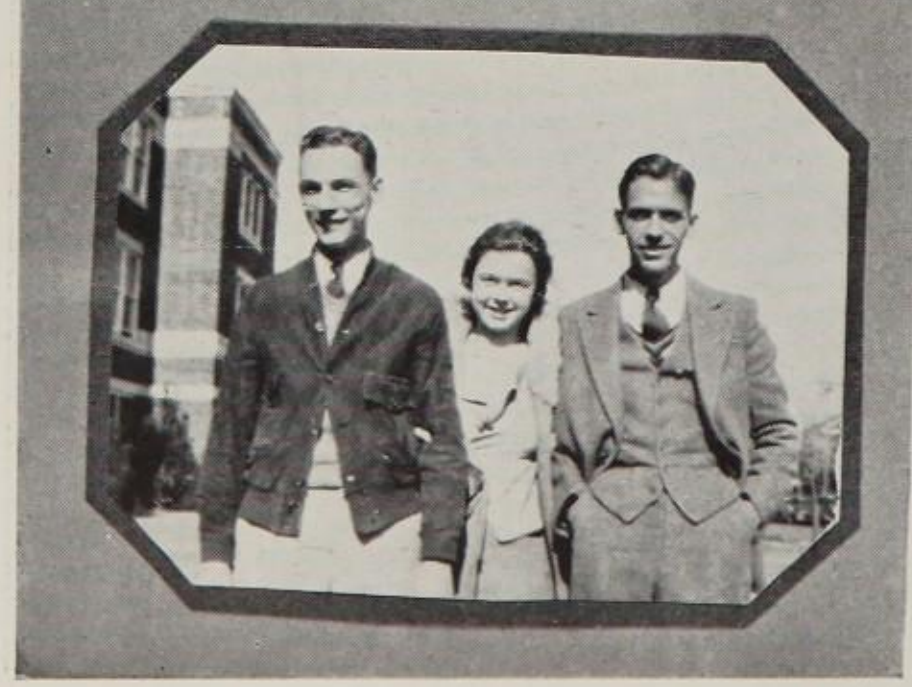
Hunter Pedigo is Classen's Zazu Pitts. What's his limousine?

Notice Phyllis Perrine's "Will you come into the parlor" expression?

Mary Ellen Beavers, the latest in auto noise makers.

Three little gals trying to get a head—or a foot. They're not particular.

In the Spring a young man's fancy turns to—but maybe it's only the chapeaux that gives that winsome effect.



Conspicuous Cases

The Beavers-Robinson football romance has flourished through the baseball season.

Frances Myers and Jack Miller are attending church together these days.

"What-a-Man" Peterson knows his ladies by numbers—or is it figures?

Meet Wayne Kessler, but maybe it's Ed. Anyway it's no fun two-timing twins. Ask Eleanor Looney.

Back to nature with Charley Ryan, Marian Hauck, Nancy Voorhis, Phil Cope and some other hot dogs.

Evlyn Kelts is telling Paul Beach and Jerry Mraz what she thinks of them and pecans —all nerts!

Just Girls

Marian Trosper, Sara Vera Jordan, Mareta Nell West, Beryl Taylor, Helen Falk, Mildred Ayers, Bernice Fitzpatrick, and Gloria Smith demonstrate one way of making boys stop where they should.

Who gave you the gate, Charlotte Anne? Or is it just a pose?

Carol Boone in "The Big Bluff," featuring all her lessons.

This isn't Nancy's only racket!

Elaine Lewinsohn and Kathleen Kelley were looking for a place to park their gum. Wonder if they overlooked Mr. Morisett's desk.

May we call you a taxi, Mary?

Here and There

Control your Adam's Apple! It's only a Hell Hound initiation.

Hugh Byler, impersonating Little Lord Fauntelroy. We always knew he had it in him!

Two dames on a man hunt; Walker and McEldowney!

A big man on the campus, trying to make a bigger impression—that's Ralph Milburn.

An Irish Revolution — Patsy O'Sullivan and her books!

Some gay young blades out for a ripping time! And it was a "love game"; they say.

Really Frances Peck, Mary Margaret Whitehurst, and Ianth Roland wouldn't cut a pal?

Glimpses and Glances

Nina Beth Johnson, a victim of peroxide—and all for George Carothers!

Beware of the clutching claw, Eloise—at least 'till you discover whose it is!

A trio that suddenly became a quartette. And they insist that it wasn't "Sweet Adeline."

Cy Young, in a characteristic pose. Oh yeah?

Marjorie McPeek tells us that there is plenty of room.

Isn't Dorothea Rainey dumb and innocent, but willing to learn?

"The Beggar on Horseback"—who's getting the benefit of the doubt besides Blake Puckett?

And here's the scene of it all!

Snooping About

Charles Roberts and Omar Oliver will have their little fun.

Our mystery man, Charles Fischer, the guy with two soles.

How to wear an Empress Eugenie according to Alice Dru Anderson.

Are Jane Marsh and Suzanne McCloskey convincing as camera shy damsels?

ATHLETICS

The Coaching Staff

WESLEY FRY, football and track; EARL COFFEY, minor sports; HAROLD MILLER, basketball and baseball; RETHA WAVE HULET, girls' sports.

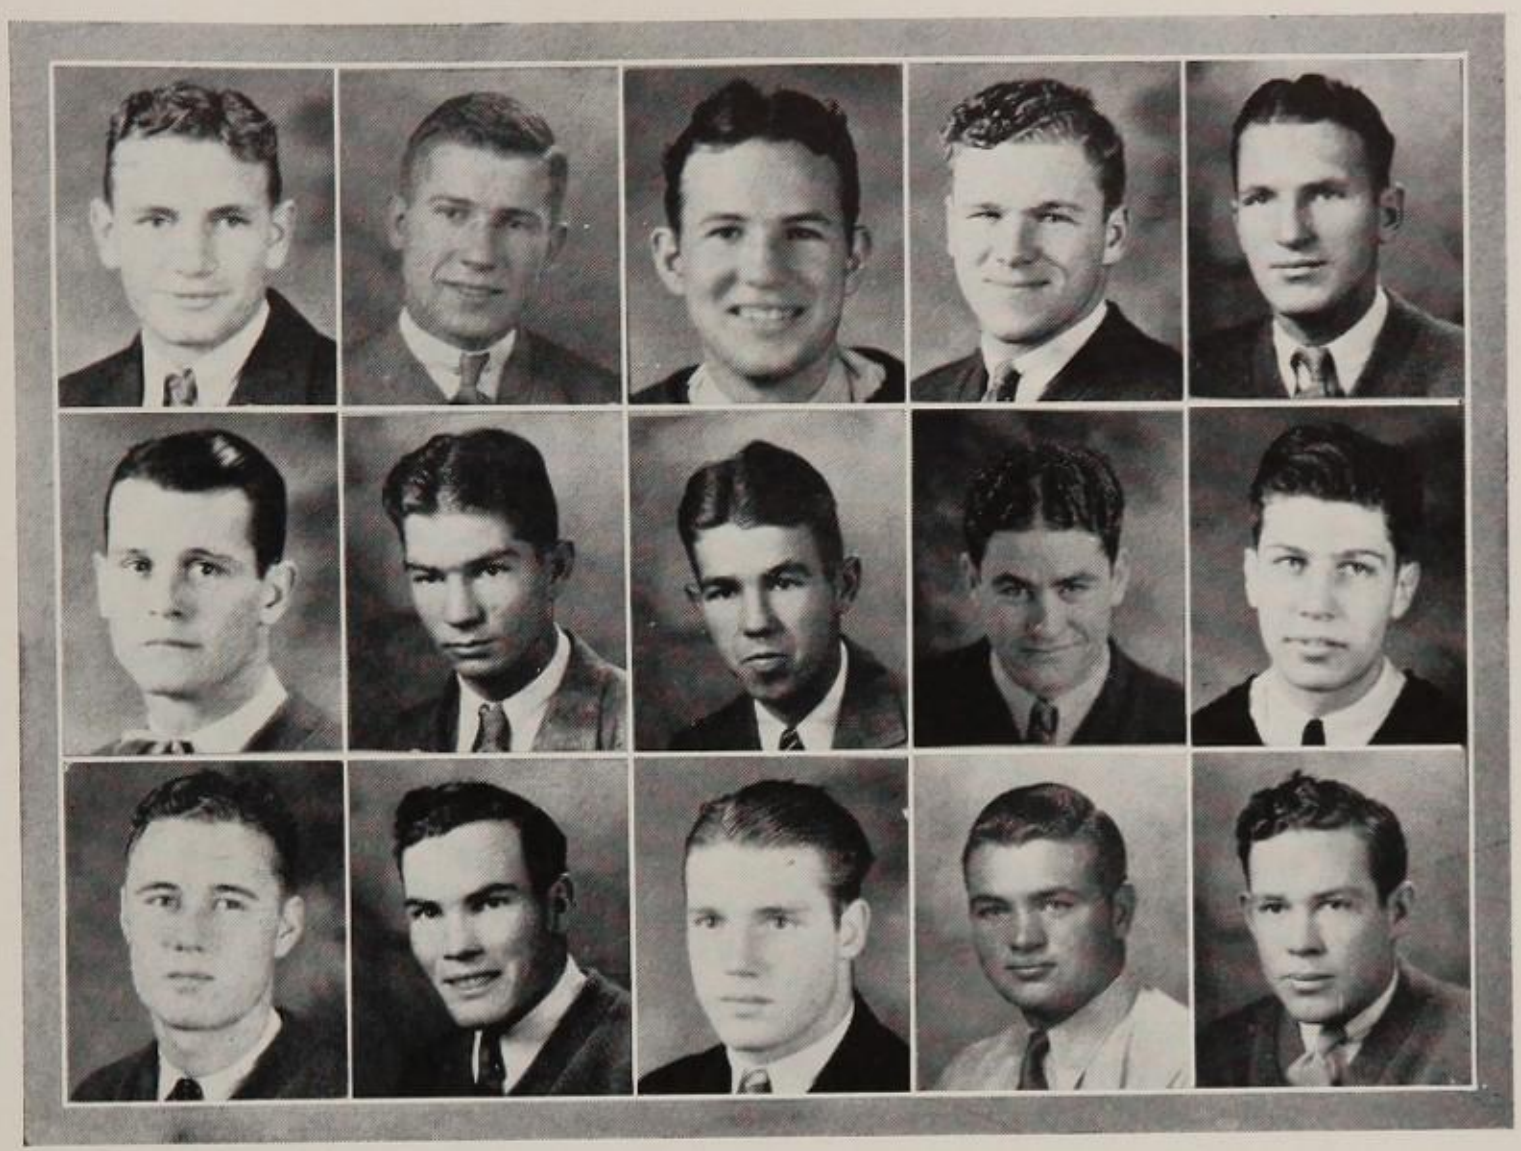
Under the leadership of an exceptionally fine staff of coaches and assistants the athletic teams of the 1931-32 season have made another excellent record for the Classen files. Football, under Coach Wes Fry, proved to be another record breaker. The Comets were victorious in their eleven game schedule, winning ten games and losing only one. Assistant coaches Fred Lyon and Cy Young rendered invaluable assistance in their coaching of the line and backfield.

Coach Skimmer Miller's basketball and baseball squads were successful. The basketball team won the major part of its scheduled games, while the diamond crew tied with the Capitol Hill Redskins for the city title.

Coach Earl Coffey's golf, swimming and tennis crews turned in another record breaking count. The golf team won the city title, and took second in the Tri-State invitation tournament. The swimming team took the city title and won second in the state finals. The tennis team won five titles in the city, conference and state meets.

Miss Retha Wave Hulet's volleyball team set a new record in the race for the volleyball title. The Comet girls ran up a record score in the opening game of the season, to win the crown, undefeated.

Football



Connie Ahrens, Ed Casey, George Moss, Bob Tennant, Otis Wallis.
Hugh Erwin, Harry Brandon, Charles Ryan, Dee Coley, Vayle Harrison.
Dick Stone, Alex Coleman, Howard McKinley, Jack Sweet, Jack Fleming.

The 1931 Football team, under the direction of Coach Wes Fry, turned in another enviable record, setting the pace for state high school crews, and piling up two titles during the season.

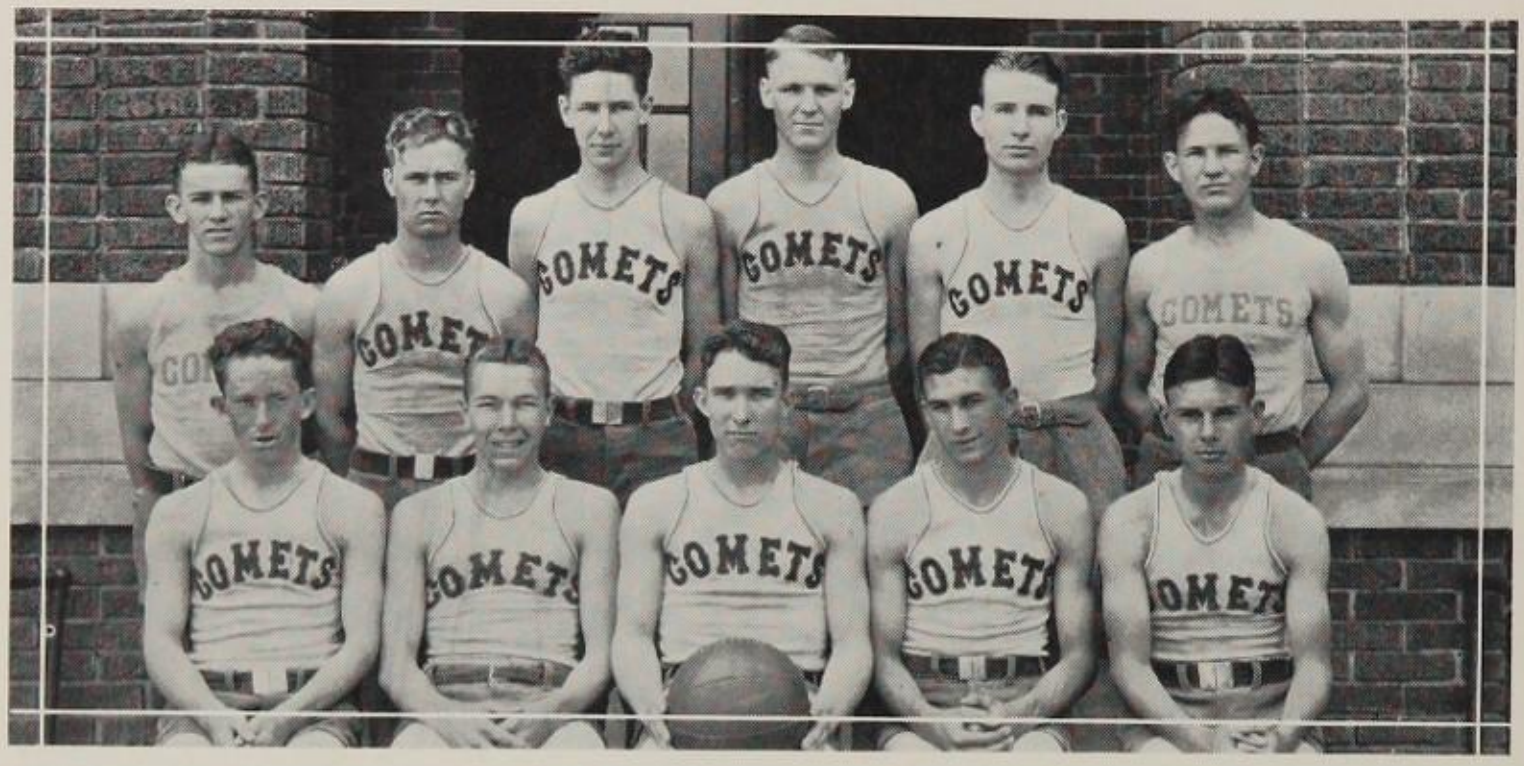
The race for the city crown found the Frymen on top of the heap, with easy victories over the traditional rivals, Central and Capitol Hill. The other city crews failed to get to first base in the race for the Mid-State Conference title. Led by Captain Jack Sweet, the Fry brigade swept the conference foes for a straight stretch of wins, to take the crown and repeat their performance of the two preceding years.

In the opening games of the season, the Frymen piled up a record total. In each of the first two frays the Comets amassed totals of 59 to win, while the opponents made only seven markers. Guthrie went the way of the other teams in a 19 to 0 battle.

In what was perhaps the most sensational game of the season, against a team with a much heavier line, the Comets came from behind in the last quarter to take the victory from Shawnee 19 to 7. It was the first time the Comets ever succeeded in licking the Wolves on their home field.

After a slack in the record breaking pace the Comets took a three point margin win from the Norman Tigers. The Frymen returned to their early season form to take a victory from the Tulsa Braves, Northern Conference champions. The Braves, doped to upset the Frymen in an easy game, found the Comets too tough for them, and took an 18 to 6 licking on their home field.

Basketball



Charles Dinger, Dick Stone, Max Morgan, Ted Bridges, John Wright, George Moss.
Al Hogan, Phil Cope, Gene Nance, Captain, Paul Coulter, Bob Turner.

From only a few lettermen and experienced squad members Coach Skimmer Miller developed a cage crew that came near to taking the city and Mid-State Conference titles. Although the Millermen faced defeat in some of their encounters, the Comet cage crew of 1932 succeeded in reaching the finals of the state tournament, and breaking the all-time standing record with three consecutive wins over the Central Cardinals. Coach Miller and his charges deserve credit for the splendid record they established.

The opening game of the season saw the Millermen taking revenge on the Lawton Wolverines for the beating they inflicted on the Comet grid crew. The Classen five defeated the visitors 44 to 12. The new crew proved its strength when it defeated a team composed of the former Classen cage stars 33 to 31. In following games Guthrie went down 42 to 19, Shawnee 32 to 21 and Bristow 31 to 7.

After a brilliant 24 to 23 win ove rthe Central Cardinals, hard luck invaded the Miller Camp. Norman swamped the Classen team 18 to 12. only to have the tables turned in the next game and take a 16 to 9 beating. The Comets failed to click against the El Reno Indians, and took their second licking on the El Reno court in a 29 to 9 count. Capitol Hill went down 27 to 24, and the Tulsa Braves were upset for a 27 to 23 win for the Comets.

Chickasha turned the tables on the Classen team, to win in a 20 to 12 game. The Comets staged a sensational come-back to defeat Guthrie 32 to 15, and Central for the second time 26 to 16. Capitol Hill took revenge 28 to 16 and El Reno again downed Classen 32 to 18.

Baseball

TED HUCKABY, OTIS WALLIS, CONNIE AHRENS, HARRY SWIRCZYNSKI, BILL CUTCHALL, GENE NANCE.
ARTHUR LEWIS, AL HOGAN, GUY LAWRENCE, CARL JOHNSON, MARTIN TEBRINKE.

Although the 1932 baseball team failed to keep their four year hold on the State baseball title, the Comet crew played consistent ball during the city and state schedules. Handicapped by a lack of material Coach Skimmer Miller moulded a team that deserves commendation for the excellent type of ball it played.

With only seven lettermen returning to the squad this year Coach Miller took new recruits and made a baseball club that defeated the Central and Capitol Hill crews to tie with the Redskins for the city title. With only one experienced pitcher to toss the game, the Miller crew succeeded in winning all but one of the city round-robin games.

In the City games the Millermen downed the Central Cardinals in the opening game, and gave the Redskins their first beating in the second. The Cardinals were defeated in the return fray with the Millermen but the Redskins, taking advantage of the absences on the Comet crew, turned a defeat into a victory to tie with the Classen brigade for the crown.

The four year hold on the state diamond title was won by the Shawnee Wolves after the Millermen were beaten in the first game of the playoffs by Newcastle. In the Stillwater meet the Comets were again downed by the Newcastle team to lose another chance for a co-championship claim to the title.

Minor Sports

Under the direction of Coach Earl Coffey the golf, swimming and tennis teams turned in winning records. Led by Jess Fronterhouse, veteran linksman, the Comet golfing crew captured the city links title, repeating their performance of the preceding season. Fronterhouse, Lucien McLaughlin, Art St. John, Malcolm Gill and Jack Garner took the crown, beating Central and Capitol Hill in the matches on the Lincoln Park course. The Comets won second position in the Tri-State invitation tournament at Durant, Oklahoma, April 25. McLaughlin was runner-up for the individual title in the city meet, while Fronterhouse won second individual position in the Tri-State match.

The swimming team turned in another record performance with a new city record and a second position in the State tournament. In the city meet the Comets won over the Cardinals and Capitol Hill in the Classen Pool. In the state meet the Comet relay team, Ed Kostka, Frank Hamilton, Duane Wallace and Joe Llewellyn set a new record for the 160-yard relay. The team lopped one second off the record time set by the champion Tulsans. The Coffey team took second in the state finals in the Classen pool with a one point lead over the Cardinals. The Redskins took fourth place with only five markers.

The boys' tennis teams turned in record breaking marks for the season with five titles in the doubles and singles events. In the city meet the Classen doubles teams annexed the title against the Central and Redskin teams. The singles title was won by Fred Mitcham after a hard fought battle in an all Classen final. The doubles team, Mitcham and Fred Hare, took the doubles title by beating Hal Leaming and Emory Pedigo in an all-Classen finish. In the Mid-State Conference games the Comets again won the boys' singles and doubles matches. Mitcham and Hare took the doubles event while Pedigo won the singles title. In the Norman state meet no titles were won, but in the Stillwater tourney the Comets took the boys' singles and doubles events. Mitcham and Hare won another title and Pedigo took the singles crown.

Track, under Coach Wes Fry, suffered a set-back from the title winning record of last season. With no veterans back on the crew the running end of the squad failed to click in the meets. Jack Sweet took honors in all the city Mid-State Conference and state meets.

In the city meet Sweet won places in the shot put, javelin and discuss throw. In the Mid-State Conference games he again scored in the weights. Sweet set a new record for the shot put in the O. C. U. invitation tourney with a toss of 48 feet, 6 inches. First place in the shot put, second in the discuss throw and third in the javelin made nine points for the Comets in the Norman meet. Phil Cope scored two points, winning third place in both the 220-yard low and high hurdle events.

Sweet's performance with the weights in the Stillwater meet made the Comets' only points in the events.

Swimming

Girls' Athletics

Volleyball was introduced as a girls' standard sport in Oklahoma City high schools in the winter of 1929.

In a four-game series for the city title for 1932, Classen won all games by an overwhelming score.

Leading the Comet team was Valeria McKinley, who had as her able teammates Virgie Spencer, Harriet Thompson, Donna Wilson, Opal Pippin, Elizabeth Willis, Hazel Phillips, Margaret Galyen, Nellie Kincheloe, Eloise Morgan, Eleanor Hopkins, Mary Helen Horton, Rose Thorp, Ruth Galoob and Rosetta Cross.

In the fall of 1930, an all city girls' play day was inaugurated. By this plan the three senior high schools compete for the city championship in volleyball, tennis, croquet, baseball and hockey on one day.

In the city meet, Pat Arnett defeated Helen Leverich of Capitol Hill for the championship by a score of 6-2, 1-6, 7-5. The doubles title was taken by Pat Arnett and Georgia Looney. Pat Arnett and Georgia Looney captured the Mid-State doubles title at Norman and also the State doubles title at Stillwater.

Tennis

Elizabeth Willis, Pauline Lewinsohn, Georgia Looney, Mary Lee Verser, Julia Mae Cohoon, Pat Arnett, Lois Olga King, Marie Davis.

The swimming season, while not in full swing as yet, shows promise as being one of the best that Classen has yet experienced. In the semifinals for the city meet, Classen placed 16 girls to Capitol Hill's 9 and Central's 4. The team includes Hallie Jean Smythe, Mary Haven, Betty Jane Scott, Virginia Cunningham, Betty Jean Kinney, Virginia Siebert, Julia Mae Cohoon, Phyllis Payne, Mary Helen Horton, Glennis Teeter, Helen Barnes, and Betty Honnold.

After a hard struggle, the Classen girls' golf team gave up the city honors to Central. Classen stayed in the race until the semifinal round, when it was defeated by Central. The team includes Carolyn Bailey, Helen Rodgers, Imogene Aufricht, and Margileth Meyer.

The Classen girls have won three out of four baseball games this season between the two teams. The first team played Britton and won 27 to 11, but was defeated by Capitol Hill, 10 to 27. The team includes Donna Wilson, Eloise Morgan, Owene Parker, Madeline Crawford, Frances Sheldon, Wynona Collins, Virgie Spenser, Rosa Belle Botkins, Opal Pippin and Harriet Thompson.

The second team played two games and won both. They won from Capitol Hill, 25 to 15 and from Central, 12 to 6. The winning team consists of Mary Helen Horton, Louise Duncan, Mary Haven, Mildred Wilson, Doris Galyon, Nellie Kincheloe, Eleanor Hopkins, Thelma Jenkins, Nell Jenkins and Gladys Allbaugh.

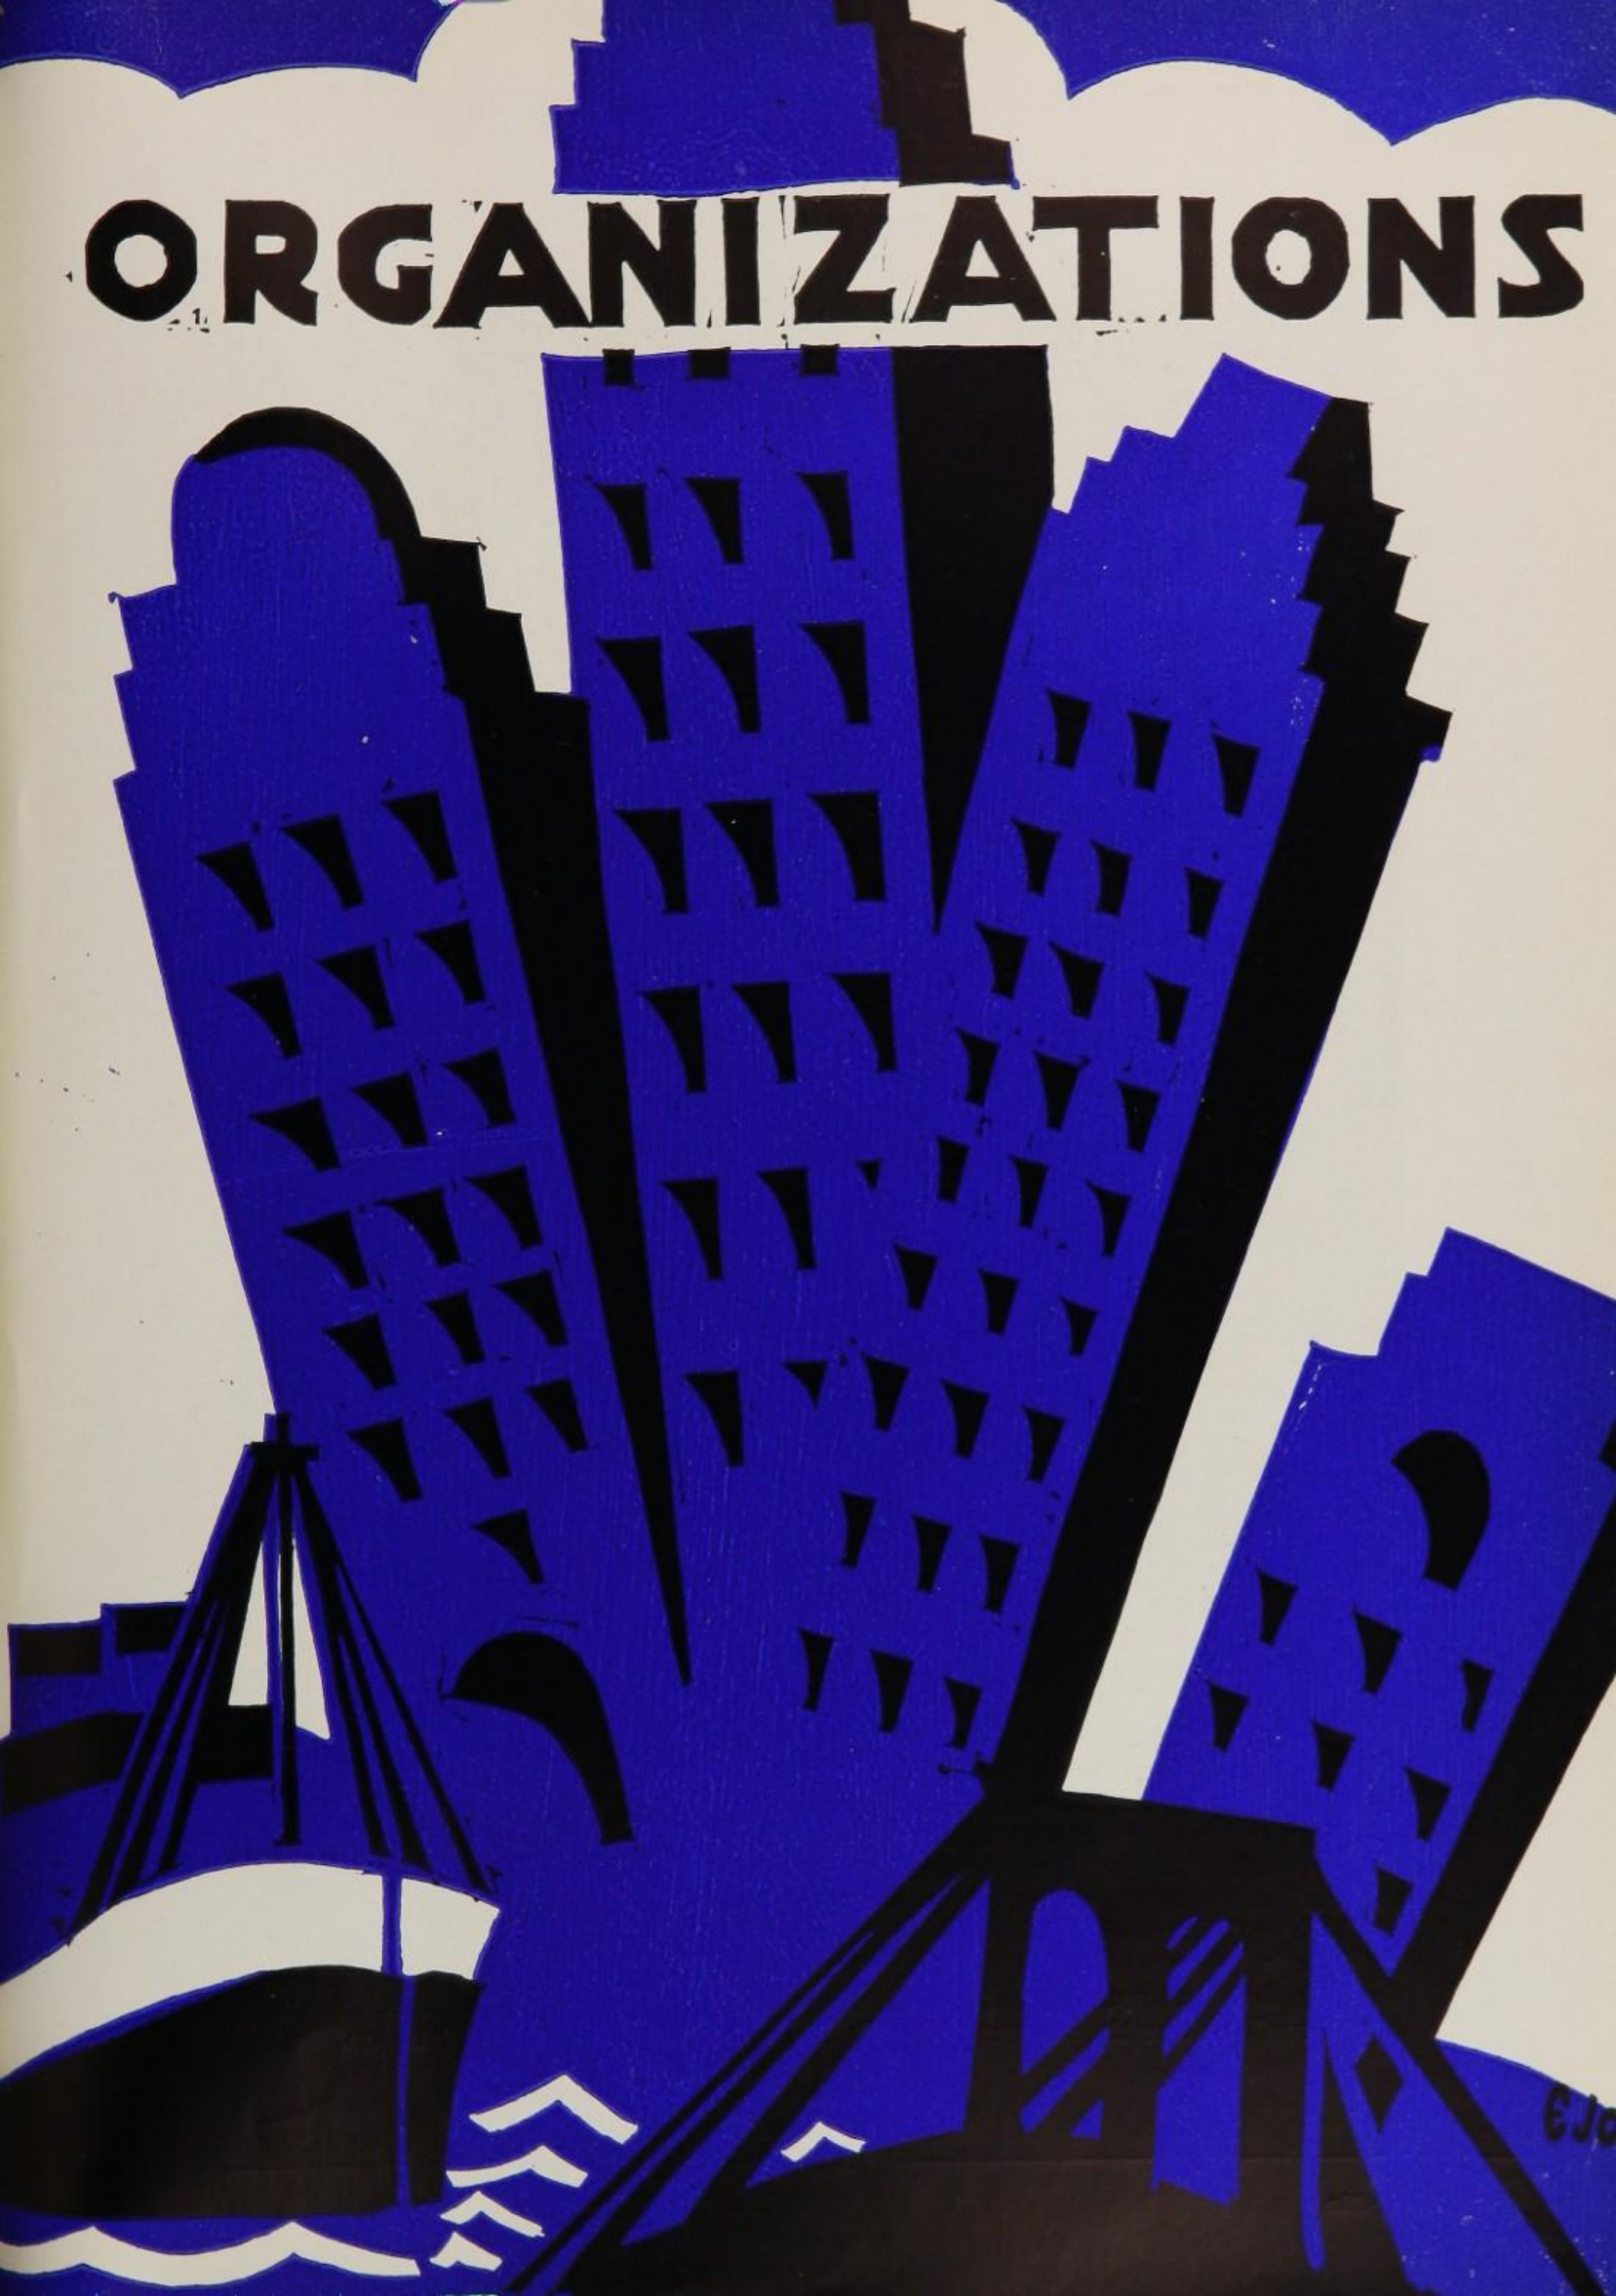
Hockey

Eloise Morgan, Helen Rice, Ruth Galoob, Frances Sheldon, Mary Helen Horton, Thelma Jenkins, Nell Jenkins.
Dorothy Swan, Hazel Phillips, Rosetta Cross, Harriett Thompson, Vergie Spenser, Nellie Kincheloe, Lucille Griffith.

Swimming

Betty Honnold, Helen Barnes, Virginia Cunningham, Jean Nicholas, Helen Carr, Margaret Ingram, Mary Haven.
Hallie Jean Smythe, Nellie Kincheloe, Julia Mae Cohoon, Betty Jane Scott, Marian Cunningham, Betty Jean Kinney.

ORGANIZATIONS



Courtesy Club

It is the chief aim and purpose of the Courtesy Club to cultivate and encourage courtesy. Since the organization of the group, its activities have been indispensable to Classen's welfare. Among them have been — taking charge of guests at assemblies, offering assistance in serving and receiving at P. T. A. meetings and dinners, and assuming the responsibility of guiding out-of-town teachers during the week of their convention.

Many a Classenite, saddened by sorrow or death and illness, has been cheered by thoughtful cards of sympathy sent by the club. Welcoming new Classen students is last but not least of their innumerable friendly, unforgettable duties. Much credit is due the sonsors, Miss Della Link and Miss Berniece Gordon.

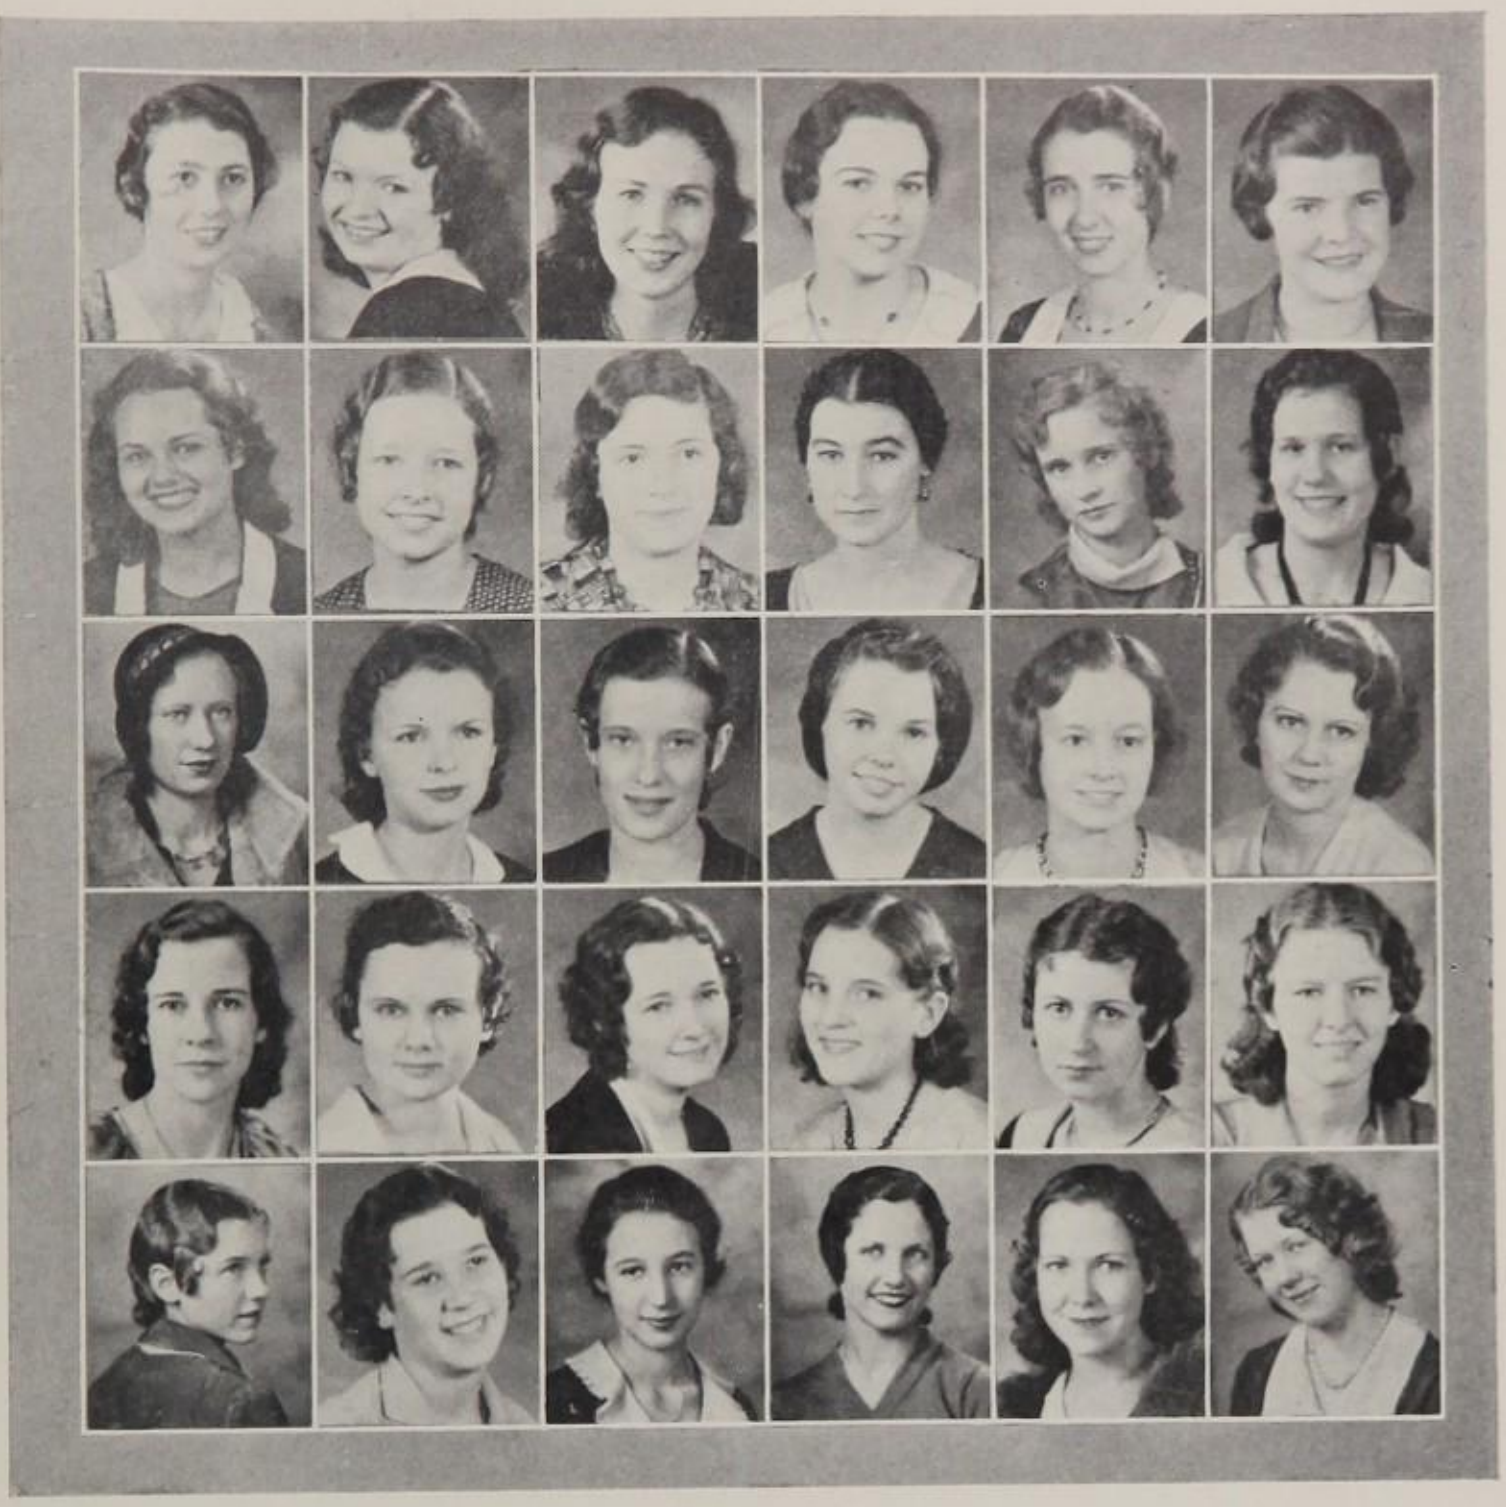
Charlotte Ann Davis, Roberta Benton, Phyllis Clark, Margaret Thompson, Marjorie June McPeek, Martha McCall.

The Comes Pep Club is the oldest and most prominent girls' club in the school. The purpose of the Club is the furthering of all school activities and promoting school spirit.

They have shown their intent in school athletics by attending in a body all the games participated in by the school.

Annually, they give to the football team a banquet. This year it was held at the University Club.

Comes



Alice Miller, Pauline Killough, Muriel Moore, Patsy O'Sullivan, Velma Newman, Frances Myers.

Nancy Jones, Carol Boone, Edith Wood, Mary Martineau, Loraine Thornton, Fan Louise Looney.

Lois Olga King, Carolyn McEldowney, Eleanor Looney, Carolyn Bailey, Mary Ann Dallas, Phyllis Pugh.

Elizabeth Pennington, Jarona Lessly, Dorothy Ross, Jane Lyon, Betty Armstrong, Virginia Leanord.

Jane Caviness, Georgia Looney, Margarete Hardegan, Isabelle Post, Adele Reeburgh, Emily Bell.

The Club has furnished ushers at operettas, school plays, Junior Symphony Concerts.

Every spring including this one the Comes have held a picnic for the boys participating in the spring athletics.

Miss Blanche Holland has been the sponsor since the club was founded. The membership is approximately 100 girls.

Hell Hounds

Walter Blevins, Ed Swatek, vice-president and president; Paul Coulter, Paul LeCrone, Oliver Tyler.

The pep that has been displayed at the home and out of town athletic games during the past school year has been due largely to the Classen Hell Hounds, under the able sponsorship of Mr. Fred Lyon. The C. H. H., in connection with the Comes, the Blue Jackets, and the Student Council, have been responsible for the programs and stunts that have been presented at different games.

In the earlier part of the year the Hell Hounds struck upon the idea of keeping order in the assemblies held by the school. After receiving the approval of Mr. C. S. Wallace and Prin. L. N. Morrisett, they have done admirably.

The officers of the club are: Connie Ahrens, president; Ed Swatek, vice-president; Nick Henson, secretary; Frank Hamilton, treasurer, and Dean Cutchall, sergeant-at-arms.

Science

Malcolm Keller, secretary; Mr. C. S. Johnston, sponsor; J. R. Hicks, president; Mr. Howard E. Brown, sponsor; John Upham, president.
Virgil Downing, Madelyn Crofford, treasurer; Denver Edwards, Jane Alexander, treasurer; Frank Andrews.
James Cravens, Felix Gordon, Marion Burnett, secretary; Claude Traverse, Bob Colvert.

Under the guidance of Mr. C. S. Johnson and Mr. H. E. Brown, the Science Club began the semester by undertaking the project of building a telescope. The telescope was presented to the school on May 4, at a reception to which all members of the schoolboard were invited.

During the school year the club made many field trips for the purpose of collecting geological and biological specimens. The specimens collected by the club will be used as exhibits in the school during the coming year.

A re-election of officers was held at the beginning of the second semester. During the past semester the club has attended various lectures dealing with geology and astronomy at the Shrine Auditorium and at Norman.

The Science Club presented a series of science pictures in the auditorium at Classen for the purpose of raising a fund to present a medal to the student who was most outstanding in the science group.

Blue Jackets

Bob Moore, Fred Zahn, Reed Coats, Fred Coombs, Jack Dolman, Walter Kamp, Karl Rusch, Fred Mitcham, Bob Kline, J. M. Key, Jack Peterson, Gene Nance, Junior Bruton, George Sturm.
Max Bruton, Emory Pedigo, Marvin Proffer, Phil Cope, Stewart Hisel, Phil Simon, James Degnan, J. O. Givens.
John Gephart, Douglas Jones, Walter Harrison, Charles Urschel.
Bronson Lyon, Bob Taylor, Sonny Schumaker, Ryan Russell.

The Classen Blue Jacket Club was organized late last semester by a small group of students who selected Mr. George Sturm for sponsor and the following officers: Jack Peterson, president; Sonny Schumaker, vice-president; Bob Taylor, secretary, and J. M. Key, sergeant-at-arms.

The outstanding achievement of the club this year was its presentation of gold basketballs to each member of the 1931 squad in the sports assembly.

Probably the first task that confronted the organization was the selection of a suitable uniform. It was decided that a blue corduroy jocket would be adopted for the official emblem. They attended every sporting function of any importance, and gave the teams their whole-hearted support.

Their social function was given in the form of a picnic held at a farm near Edmond, which featured a "bean hole" treasure hunt, and was followed by a social at the home of a member.

Latin — Olympian Council

Norman Davis. Walleah Jones, Warren Richards.
Margaret Ellen Hopper, Hazel Thacker, Bill Earley, Aileen Twyford, Cornelia White.
Noba French, Una Essex, Edith Gaylord, Richard Disney, Winifred Cox.
Fred Zahn, Marie Grace Hopper, Mary Alice Larson, Helen Sipes, Carl Cooper.

Under the able guidance of Miss Bess Snell and Miss Lucille Willoughby, the Latin Club, known as the Olympian Council, has been organized and has drawn up and adopted a constitution taken from that of the ancient Romans.

Meetings are held semi-monthly when a program is presented by members of the club. The S. P. Q. R., of Central, was entertained by the Council in the latter part of April.

The officers of the club are named after the six major dieties, and this in itself is one of the highest honors that can be conferred upon a member.

They are: Bill Earley, president, whose title is Jupiter; Walleah Jones, vice-president, known as Minerva; Helen Leister, secretary, Apollo; Cornelia White, treasurer, Mercury; and Carl Cooper, sergeant-at-arms, Mars.

Modern Language Club

Peggy Miller, Paul McLean, Frances Myers, president; Margarete Hardegan, Jack Miller, Virginia Haegar.
Corrine Baker, Anna Sue Hamlin, Mary Hill, Virginia Martin, Jane Gibson, Joe Swan.
Virginia Estes, Bill Hilswick, Virginia Ann Heninger, Bessie Mallett, James Bumpas, Norma Smith.

GERMAN CLUB - MRS. RICHARDSON

President ---------- Margarita Hardegan
Vice-president ---------- Dorothy Kirschner
Secretary ---------- Paul MacLain

SPANISH CLUB - MISS BRAINARD

President ---------- Bill Hillswick
Vice-president ---------- Valmour Messer
Secretary ---------- Dorothy Alexander

The Modern Language Club is divided into three groups—Spanish, French, and German. Every third meeting a joint meeting is held, each club giving a part of the program in the language of the country it represents. By way of living up to its purpose of furthering interests in modern languages the club has presented programs before the Classen P.-T. A. and the French Club of Central High School. To prove its interest in the country which it portrays the Spanish Club has compiled a group of Spanish songs.

Math Group

Felix Olim, Margaret Long, J. R. Ricks, Jane Alexander, Loren Sage.
Ruth Morris, John Upham, Helen Mathews, George Allen, Phyllis Jones.
Robert Miller, Marguerite Klein, Eugene Jones, Margaret Bowen, Vander Barkett.
Katherine Bragg, Warren Sherman, Elizabeth Thompson, David Mauldin, Kathryn Mattox.

The Honor Math Group, sponsored by Miss Miriam Kernodle, Miss Grace Deupree and Mr. C. E. Herring was founded last fall for the purpose of stimulating interest in and honoring those most outstanding in mathematics.

The club has sponsored the slide rule class, offered an award to the most able student of mathematics at Classen, and held several social and educational functions throughout the year.

The officers for the year were; J. R. Ricks, president; Kathryn Mattox, vice-president; Vander Barkett, secretary; and John Upham, treasurer.

Hi-Y

J. A. Mull, vice-pres.; Karl Rusch, president; Ralph Cies, vice-pres and pres.
Buhrman Timberlake, Earl Dunn, Mr. C. E. Grady, George Allen, secretary
Floyd Cailloux.
J. B. Foster, Harry Graves, Darwin Hixson, D. Frank Plater, Melvin Swain.
Wilbur Daeschner, Hubert Brock, Bill Hilswick, James Bumpas.

The Hi-Y under the sponsorship of Mr. C. E. Grady has enjoyed its usual successful year.

It lists among its activities a city-wide installation of officers, with every Hi-Y club in the city represented.

The club also sponsored an Easter service, which was held in the auditorium, every morning during the week before Easter, and a Mother-and-Son banquet.

At the beginning of the school year Classen had two clubs; the senior, and the sophomore, but it was decided that one would be more effectual. This necessitated a merger of the two groups.

Girl Reserve

Dorothea Eacock, Ruth Shultz, Phyllis Jones, Elizabeth Thompson, Madylyn Crofford.

Irene Mobry, Martha Moore, Anna Mildred Moore, Jane Alexander, Louise Williams.

Rose Marie Cooley, Margaret Long, Wilma Jean Gethman, Elnora Bass, Dorothy Todd.

Virginia Baron, Virginia Dean Morgan, Margaret Burnham, Margaret Bartosh, Adele Reeburgh.

Furthering the good-will that has kept Classen high in the estimate of the city, the Girl Reserves have accomplished much during the past year.

Christmas services, sponsored by this group, were beautifully solemnized in the school auditorium.

Throughout the term they have been active in charity and good fellowship work at the Cripple Children's Hospital.

The Girl Reserves, aided by the Classen Hi-Y, also sponsored the annual Easter services.

Girl Reserve

Margaret Ellen Hopper, Maurine Marshall, Audrey Jones, Betty Gibbons, Margaret Mueller.

Donna Mae Morgan, Doris Hanks, Phyllis Clark, Winifred Cox, Kathleen Kelly.

Maurine Murphy, Marjorie Hazelwood, Alta Hickox, Grace Marie Pitchford, Marian Burnett.

Marie Grace Hopper, Katherine Bragg, Edythe Young, Charlotte Jackson, Kathryn Mattox.

In keeping with the good work of former years, the club maintained a Social Service Department, at the Wesley Community House.

The Classen group also entertained the Girl Reserves from all other city schools at the first banquet which was held in the recently completed Y. W. C. A. building.

They have given numerous picnics and parties during the term to confer honors upon members of their group.

Sponsors are Miss Blanche Paul, Miss Henrietta Von Tungeln, Miss Nell Guthrie, and Miss Mildred Pate.

Goose Quill Club

KEITH SPENCE, ALICE MCALLISTER, MARTHA MOORE.
KATHERINE DIMICK, ELOISE JARVIS, MARGARET MUELLER, MERRY CHANDLER, WILMA JEAN GETHMAN.
HUBERT BROCK, ELERE CRADDOCK, MADELYN GOLDBERG, HIRAM DOTY.

The Goose Quill Club has had a change of sponsors this semester, and is now under the direction of Miss Ann Pearson. Members are making plans whereby they may be of assistance to the English faculty next year.

Because one of their members, Alice McAllister, won second place in the National Witter Bynner poetry contest, the members have become particularly interested in prize works. By studying the qualities of winning poems, short stories, essays, and plays the members hope to gain more honor for Classen and benefit themselves in the literary field.

Last semester officers were Merry Chandler and Margaret Mueller.

This semester the places were filled by Wilma Jean Gethman, Madelyn Goldberg, and Wanda Russell.

Classen Life Staff

VIRGINIA MARTIN, WILLIS WILSON, business mgr.; ROSE MARIE COOLEY, editor; VALMOUR MESSER, editor; WESLEY HAGEBUSH.
EARL DUNN, RUTH ELEANOR GRIMES, PHYLLIS CLARK, MERRY CHANDLER, JAKIE LICHTENBERG.

This semester marks the end of another profitable year for the Classen Life. When the staff returned from the fall convention of the Oklahoma Inter-scholastic Press Association at the University of Oklahoma they brought back the Sigma Delta Chi award for typography and make-up. Two first places and one second place were won during the course of the year. First place was won in the contest sponsored by the University Junior College at Tonkawa, Oklahoma. The second place was gained at the Oklahoma International Press Association this spring.

Accompanied by Mr. George Sturm, Valmour Messer and Willis Wilson, editor and business manager last semester, attended the National Press Association in Chicago. They returned with an advanced knowledge of newspaper work which has been successfully applied to the Classen Life by Rose Marie Cooley and Willis Wilson, this semester's editor and business manager. To complete the year's activities Yvonne Welch was elected Classen Life Queen.

FLASHES

Class Poem of 1932

Out of the blurred past
Comes reality
And sudden clearness, like the smooth green, foamless wave
Riding to break white upon the shore.
And now my careless years
Are close upon the frowning rocks
Where they must pound and strive incessantly.
But these hazy years, traversed so blindly,
Have yet a tale to tell—a prize to show:
They have taught me how to hurl upon the crags
Receiving least hurt—most gain!
Some day the rocks will have worn away
Under the silver crashing of an eternity of breakers.

—Eloise Alton Jarvis.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1932, of Classen High School, in the city of Oklahoma City, being now in good health, strength of body and mind, but sensible of the uncertainty of life, and desiring to make disposition of our property and affairs while in health and strength, do hereby make, publish and declare the following to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and canceling all other or former wills by us at any time made.

I. We direct the payment of all our just debts and funeral expenses.

II. We give and devise to the following Juniors and Sophomores the following property and attributes, to wit:

To all Juniors we bequeath our uncanny knack of ditching classes and escaping the consequences, also the clever art of detracting our esteemed teachers from the prescribed outline of study. To all pernicious, vexatious, malignant, noxious, perverting, noisome, deleterious, detrimental, insalubrious, pestilential, unwholesome, blatant, obstreperous, vociferous, abominable, anomalous, erroneus, foolish, ludicrous, ridiculous, stupid, obscure, Sophomores, we leave the hope that by some Heaven sent miracle they too, may be some day writing a last will and testament.

III. In answer to a crying need, Loren Sage leaves his lithesome figure to Mr. Earl Coffey; and in all fairness to the faculty and for the betterment of the school, Bill Bullis wills his soft and persuasive voice to that eminent professor of physics, Mr. Fred Lyon; Charles William Gill, highly esteemed king of Classen class ditchers, bequeathes his black, foul and much coveted office record to C. S. Wallace, to be used as he sees fit; also Patsy O'Sullivan wills her pleasant disposition to Undine Butler.

That bewhiskered behemoth Jack Miller, leaves his set of Smith Brothers to Bronson Lyon, who we believe fails to know who Mr. Gillette was. Jakie Lichtenberg bequeaths his natural eye for business to his ardent admirers, Jerome Abraham Gordon and Felix Bath Levi. To the next president of the United States, Governor Murray, Karl Rusch unselfishly leaves his so-called executive ability.

Sally West, Sue Schofield, and Louamma Edwards, generally spoken of as the "unholy three," will their combined dancing ability and good looks to small but mighty "Shorty" Shelburne.

The feminine qualities and lady-like characteristics of Alice Miller are left upon the demand of the Student Council, the faculty, and the Women's Christian Temperance Union, to Georgia Looney.

After careful consideration it has been decided that Winston Harris is sadly in need of tennis ability and therefore with much coaxing and persuasion, Pat Arnett and Nancy Jones have agreed to leave the secrets of their sport to this semi-athletic lad.

Ted Bridges, John Wright, and Paul LeCrone, together with Jack Sweet leave their combined height and weight to Omar Oliver, Jack Byrd, John King, and last and least, "Romping" Johnny Robinson to be divided equally and impartially among each and all of them.

As we near the end of this lengthy—and permanent record it is entirely fitting and proper that some mention be made of scholarship, in which the underclassmen are sadly deficient. We wish to leave the knack, ability, art or whatever it is that enables Frances Myers, John Upham, and Coree Thomas to make Straight A's, to the whole of the Sophomore class for better or for worse.

The class as a whole, in view of untiring efforts in our mammoth class play wish to hereby will and bequeath to Mrs. Tucker an even half-dozen nickel-plated widgets, no more, no less.

IV. We hereby appoint and designate Father Time sole executor without bond of this our last will and testament. In witness whereof, we the Senior Class of 1932, have to this our last will and testament, consisting of three (3) sheets of paper, subscribed our name this 6th day of May, 1932, at Classen High School, in the city of Oklahoma City, State of Oklahoma.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1932

Introduction to the Humor Department

Though we think you're awfully dumb
And your pointed skulls are numb,
Still the word for us is "mum"——
You're our public.

Though you give us awful pain,
Lack a convoluted brain,
Though you stand out in the rain,
You're our public.
So what th' thunder!

This section is dedicated to nitwits, tid-bits, jokes, and funny stories. If it doesn't please you call 0-0000 and see if we care if you don't get any answer.

This is the berry - berry section. Razz.

Practical Biology

The country is truly beautiful
With its murmuring streams and bees,
Its sunny valleys filled with grain
And beckoning apple trees.

But what's the use of singing now?
The whole world seems a fake,
I've answered the beck of the trees
too well
And have gotten a stomach ache.

We Nominate for Oblivion:

1. Blue slips and also pink ones.
2. The make-up-time room.
3. Those on hall duty.
4. Miss Gainor and all other forms of discipline.

1950

Many students went from Classen
Bearing colors gold and blue.
But of all the gifted classes
Best of all was '32.

Since they said good-bye to Classen
They have traveled far and wide.
'Till today they are the leaders
As was always prophesied.

As he learned to be a president
Back in 1932,
Now that Rusch boy rules our nation
Secretary Edith rates high, too.

But in two years, watch our women
Carol Boone will be their choice.
Politics will be her pastime.
All will listen to her voice.

Carol's husband known as Jakie
Then will be her "running mate."
Their elections surely coming
Don't forget to watch the date.

Lindbergh won his laurels truly
Led the world in flying high.
Now Ted Bridges is "sky polit"
Teaching all the girls to fly.

Journalism calls for talent
Forward step two girls of note.
Rose Marie and Sweet Pauline
Edit English as "she is wrote."

And the law has claimed its quota
At the bar and on the bench
Morris Fagin pleads the former.
At the latter sits Judge Mench.

Radio artists Warr and Milburn
Now control the ether waves.
While such stars as Jane Tuck warble
And dramatic Barker raves.

"Welche's College," for young ladies
Now surpasses all the rest.
As a teacher of dramatics
Our Yvonne-y is the best.

Many ladies wish to diet
Strive to be so tall and slim
J. M. Keys now tells the world
The story of, "How I keep thin."

And now the great part of my story.
Would that were more than one.
Say no prayers for Pat O'Sullivan
That righteous girl is now a nun.

Mary, Jane, Louise, Virginia,
Who have spent years acting scout.
All have won renoun for Classen
Time forbids their name to shout.

So above all worthy classes
Taking leave of gold and blue.
High upon the old tank hoisted
Are the numerals '32.
